How to Purchase a Parking Pass for the University of Utah Parking Lots

2. Click “Get Permits”.
3. Scroll to the bottom, and select “Visitor Login” unless you are a University of Utah student or employee.
4. Either create a new account or log in if you have purchased a parking pass for the University of Utah before.
5. Read the “Purchase a Permit” instructions, and click “Next >>”.
6. Choose which type of pass you would like for the day.
   - “U” passes cost $10/day.
   - “A” passes cost $15/day.
7. Agree to the rules and regulations, and click “Next >>”.
8. Select the effective and expiration dates for your temporary permit. The Utah CRLA Conference will be held on Friday, June 12, 2020 from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. When you have selected your dates, click “Next >>”.
9. You will need to add the vehicle(s) you will be purchasing your permit(s) for. Click “Add a New Vehicle”, and enter that vehicle’s information. Click “Next >>” when finished.
10. Review your cart to ensure all information is correct. Choose your form of payment and click “Pay Now”.
11. Choose “Pay Now” on the Payment Information screen again.
12. You will be sent a confirmation from Commuter Services. If you do not receive this email confirmation, reach out to them at 801-581-6415 or visit their website https://commuterservices.utah.edu.

Kiosk and Pay-by-Phone visitor lots are also available at the University of Utah for $2/hour. To learn more about these parking options, visit https://commuterservices.utah.edu/parking/.

The University of Utah Learning Center and Utah CRLA are not responsible for anything that may happen to your car while you are at the conference including ticketing and/or towing. Make sure to follow all University parking signage to prevent any additional fees.
